Funeral of Mrs. Florence Tyler—Rains Do Much Good to Growing Crops—Personal Items, Etc.

Seatonville, June 26.—We have had fine rains, which everyone felt was needed. The corn, gardens, meadows and all nature seems refreshed, and we ought to feel very thankful to our Heavenly Father for this as well as all other blessings. The tobacco growers are certainly making good up to date.

We have again been visited by the death angel in our neighborhood, who took from the church a good member, Mrs. Florence Fishback Tyler, whose funeral was preached last Sunday morning in Cedar Springs church by Rev. E. L. Jorgenson to one of the largest audiences it has ever been our privilege to attend. The sermon was fine and we hope it left its impress on everyone present. It was doubly sad from the fact that Mrs. Tyler had so recently been married. The minister mentioned being united her to Mr. Charles C. Tyler on January 1, 1911. She leaves behind her beside her husband, father and mother, one brother and one sister, who deeply mourn her loss. They have the sympathy of the entire community, but we feel their loss is her eternal gain, for she was a good Christian woman. Let us follow her example.

Miss Myrtle Johnson, who is attending school in Bowling Green, made a flying visit to Fern Creek Tuesday evening, then went to Owensboro to K. E. A. meeting. Every teacher in the state is requested to attend this annual meeting.

Mr. nose Boston and family, Mr. Dave Wigington and family, Mr. Roy Reid and wife, Mr. Arch Tinnel and wife, Elder E. L. Jorgenson and wife, Mr. Taylor Pound and Miss Wanda Knauer attended the funeral at Cedar Springs Sunday and dined with Mrs. Ethel Miller. The afternoon was spent very pleasantly in singing sacred songs and talking.

Mr. Noel Jean and wife of Danville, Mr. and Mrs. Francis of Kroen, Miss Francis Gill, of Louisville, Mrs. F. L. Frazer, of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cox, of New York City, visited Mr. F. L. Jean and family recently.

Mr. Len Tyler, wife and daughter, of King's, dined with Dr. J. W. Turner and wife Sunday.

Mr. John Kaufman and family spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. Geo. Webb.

Mr. Harvey Tyler and son, Leonard, dined with Mrs. Roy Phillips Sunday. Miss Leveda Bogart of Mt. Washington is well known in this neighborhood, having visited her uncle, Dr. J. W. Turner, frequently, entered the State Normal School at Bowling Green Monday. We wish her success.

Mrs. Mattie Ellingsworth and Mrs. Tom Bishop spent one afternoon last week with Mrs. K. S. Mills.

NEVER

Trouble Till Trouble Troubles You.

This is Why Buechel Succeeds, Writes Correspondent—Many Improvements—Other News from Buechel.

Buechel, June 26.—There's a saying old and rusty, But as good as any new 'Tis "Never trouble trouble Till trouble troubles you." Don't you borrow sorrow? You'll surely have your share: He who dreams of sorrow Will find that got there. Wait till 'tis time to drop For he who runs to meet it Takes up the load before, If minding will not mend it, Then better not to mind; The best thing is to end it, Just leave it all behind. Then don't you trouble trouble Till trouble troubles you: You'll always double trouble And trouble others too.

That is our motto—verse here at Buechel, and we live up to it. We are in this place of course more and more inhabitable and growing more popular every day. We have been welcoming several different families from other vicinities into our midst and feel proud to claim them as Buechel residents. A number of handsome homes are being built along this road and several have just been completed. The pretty home of Mr. Fay is nearly completed and this community feels honored with such a pretty addition. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas have begun their new residence on their farm right here in the heart of Buechel, and this promises to be another pretty addition to our thriving community. Mrs. Anna Seaton has also completed arrangements for a residence on the lot adjoining the Buechel post office, which our amiable postmistress will occupy when plotted.

We give a hearty welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Heskamp and family, who formerly lived at Lyndon and engaged in farming business.

Mrs. Heskamp purchased the home, bakery and contents from Mr. Grover Fegenbush and will continue the bakery as before.

Fancy dinner parties and the like have been abandoned for the time being as work is so plentiful after the refreshing long-waited for rain. But everyone is planning to spend the Fourth at the big annual picnic to be given on the Fern Creek grounds. Recitations, songs and good speakers are promised, and every body is expecting a "big time." The Debutantes of the First Presbyterian congregation and all Sunday schools are cordially invited to attend. Bring your friends: Come in the morn and spend the day, And you'll feel cheered as you go away.

Bring your dinner and eat it here: This only happens once a year. There will be singing of different songs,

And recitations to help along. Refreshments many will be on hand. So come: celebrate with the Fern Creek band.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Miller were guests on Sunday of Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Parrott, of Fern Creek.

BELOVED WOMAN

Passes Away After Long Suffering From Cancer—Funeral of Mrs. Mattie F. Harris.

The funeral of Mrs. Mattie Fredrick Harris, wife of Mr. A. B. Harris, of near Jeffersontown, took place at the residence Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, interment following in Cave Hill cemetery. Many flowers, tokens of the friendship and love of the people of this community and other places, were spread upon the grave.

The Louisville Times contained the following facts concerning the death of Mrs. Harris: Death at 7:07 o'clock on Saturday morning, suffering of Mrs. Mattie Frederick Harris, fifty-six years of age, a member of a pioneer family of Kentucky and greatly beloved woman and wife of A. B. Harris, a prominent farmer on the Watterson boulevard, ten miles from the city between Bardstown and Taylorsville roads. She passed away at her country home, "Ridgeland," and was surrounded by her family when the end came.

Her death resulted from a cancer. Throughout her illness, extending over a period of three years, she bore her suffering with remarkable fortitude and retained her cheerful disposition. A week ago she was forced to her bed and since then her death had been momentarily expected. Everything possible was done for her comfort.

Mrs. Harris was born near Long Run, Jefferson county, and was a daughter of the late Squire John C. Frederick, a prominent citizen, and Mary Logan Frederick, a descendant of Daniel Boone. She received her education at the county schools, and when a young woman was married to A. B. Harris. For a score of years they resided in Shively, on the Louisville road, six miles from Louisville. Two years ago Mr. Harris purchased their present home, originally the old Mote Keller home, one of the best farms in Jefferson county.

She was of a quiet and retiring disposition and seldom ventured from her home, but was very hospitable and was never so happy as when her relatives and friends were gathered at her own table. She made friends readily and drew them to her, and her influence for good accomplished much. She was a member of the United Methodist church.

Besides her husband and mother she is survived by two sons, Cleveland H. Harris and Walter C. Harris; three brothers, William Frederick and John Frederick, of St. Matthews, and Joseph Frederick, of Springdale; and three sisters: Mrs. Albert Nellie, of O'Bannon; Mrs. Robert Sturgeon, of Eastwood, and Mrs. C. Young, of Montgomery, Ala.

Stop Borrowing from Your Neighbor

BUY YOUR OWN FARM IMPLEMENTS

Once upon a time a farmer who was too economical to buy his own implements sent his little boy to borrow a plow from his neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a bee hive and in ten minutes looked like a watery summer squash.

His cry reached his father, who ran to his assistance and failing to see a barbed-wire fence ran into, breaking it down and cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a $5 pair of trousers. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence, got into the corn field and killed herself eating green corn.

Hearing the racket, his wife ran over, upsetting a four gallon can of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning the whole flock. In her hurry she dropped and broke a $7 set of false teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the split cream into the parlor and ruined a $25 carpet. During the excitement, the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the calves got out, and the dog broke up ten sets of harness.

VOTE FOR

Edw. J. McDermott

For the Nomination of

Lieutenant-Governor AT THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY, SATURDAY, JULY 1, 1911.

Fellow-Citizens: In offering myself for the responsible office of Lieutenant Governor, some explanation of my course may be proper. I have never held an office with a salary, and yet, for 20 years, in and out of public office I have given much time to unselfish work for my native city and state—for every one of my commercial bodies, for many public and religious institutions and worthy charities of every kind. Once more I offer to serve the state and my party in a hard, important, unrenumerative office at a critical time and because many prominent, trustworthy Democrats have said that my help would be needed at the session of the Legislature.

Many prominent farmers, merchants, honest tollers in the fields and shops in every part of the state, eminent lawyers and doctors and most of the judges, from the lowest to the highest court, have been generous in their offers of support to me; and yet a few men have been erroneously persuaded, for one reason or another, that I ought to have stood aside at this critical time, regardless of the result of the state and to the Democratic party, whose interests I have always had near at heart; and, on the other hand, some honest men without full information, and some selfish cunning men, have encouraged the erroneous impression (too absurd for belief among intelligent, honorable men that know me) that I had knowingly become a part of some "clique or machine" or that I had been tricked or deceived. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Donald C. White, of Hill School, a student abroad, a graduate of the Harvard Law School, a member of the Legislative Commission, chairman of the committee that wrote the Constitution of Louisville twenty years ago, an honorary member of the Commercial Club and the Engineers and Architects' Club; my whole life has been an open book in this city. I have always tried to serve and to be fair to all our citizens alike, without any distinction based on money, nationality or religion. For the Board of Trade, the Commercial Club, the Travelers Protective Association and almost every commercial, legal, medical or other public body and for almost every school, my time and labor have been freely requested and freely given. As president of the Kentucky State Development Association, in November, 1907, in which there were 267 delegates and as a speaker in the Fair at Frankfort, I did my humble duty in an effort to set forth and make popular the progressive and public reforms and improvements which I thought we needed and which ambitious candidates for public favor now find it profitable to advocate with great vehemence. After my long public service I surely am justified in assuming that the people of Kentucky will believe that I can be trusted to act with moderation and justice in the decision of the vital questions now being earnestly discussed. I have no selfish or sinister purposes to serve, and my only reward must be your approval and good will.

TRIAL POSTPONED

Thos. O. West To Appear Tomorrow Before Squire Dorsey on Charge of Shooting Miss Wetherby.

The trial of Thomas O. West charged with shooting Miss Hattie Wetherby, of Middletown, was again postponed yesterday morning in Squire Dorsey's court, being set for tomorrow at 10 o'clock. The postponement was granted on motion of one of the attorneys for the defendant, who stated that Judge Peake, associate counsel, was well. Squire Dorsey said that inasmuch as a continuance was granted before on motion of the defense, he would grant the request of the defense.

Dr. S. D. Wetherby, uncle of Miss Wetherby, who has been removed from the Jewish Hospital to her home, stated that she is able to sit up only an hour at a time, and that it would endanger her chances of ultimate recovery to appear at the trial.

Witnesses for the prosecution who are under bond of $100 each to attend the trial tomorrow are as follows: Dr. D. S. Wetherby, Dr. L. D. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. J. Settle, Lee Hibbs, Chester Schrader, Eli White, Mag. Patrick Ridge, Sergt. Gardner, Ben Coleman, Charles R. Long, Jr., William H. Betterman, Jr., Lee Woolford and Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Pennebaker.

Owing to rain interfering with the St. John's Day League activities at Fontaine Ferry Park Saturday night the celebration will be repeated at the park next Saturday. Wm. A. Groves, president of the league, announces that all tickets sold for attractions at the park last Saturday will be honored next Saturday.

DEMOCRATS

Of Jefferson County

—STAND BY— M'CREEARY!

On next Saturday you will have an opportunity to indicate your preference for the Democratic standard bearer for the office of Governor. The Republicans are determined to make an earnest and strenuous effort to elect their candidate and you must not fail to select that man who has been often tried and never found wanting; with an official record of over forty years, he stands before the people of Kentucky and the nation unspotted and without a blemish. He is true to his state, he is true to his party and there never has been a battle when he was needed that he failed to respond and was found fighting to the bitter end. Don't take an unknown and an untried man for such a contest as will be waged this summer, but take one who is familiar with the questions before the people, who knows the state like you know your county and will always be ready to defend the principle of his party and who will be just as certain to carry the election as the day rolls round. Don't hesitate to lose an hour or two on that day, to make your choice known; it will be well spent and the state will prosper by your selection. Stand by McCreary, let that motto be first last and all the time; not only vote on next Saturday, but see that your neighbor takes the time to vote and all will be well.

Yours in faith,

FANELLI BROTHERS

JEFFERSONTOWN, KY.

The City Man —AND— The County Man

Theoretically the interests of these men should be identical or harmonious, but practically as yet this is not always the case. There is a lack of harmony growing inevitably, it would seem, at present conditions. The city man, in the manor sat in his castle, with his halberdiers and crossbow men always at hand; the serfs tillled the lands and supported the castle and its retainers; if there was anything left they got a portion of that. In the slow progress of civilization the lords moved into the cities, where with more thorough organization they ruled with greater ease, or at least with less open violence; the armed men were largely dispensed with, the halberdiers and crossbow men made laws and police to enforce them. The common people remained outside in the open country, tillers of the soil, still retaining a portion of what was left after all the others were satisfied.

Roughly speaking, although we have had great improvements in the condition of the masses, this relative condition to a considerable extent prevails. The reasons are not far to seek. The cities are close, compact organizations moving as one body, they naturally have the best that is obtainable in every field; the best known alliances of utility and convenience. The city must be supplied by the hand, as out of the earth must come all supplies of necessity, convenience or luxury. It is natural, therefore, that the city man desires to get at least the necessities as cheaply as possible; this is the logic of the situation, and he cannot evade it if he would.

The country man, by reason of his isolation and want of compact organization, is at a tremendous disadvantage in the competition that naturally ensues. Unorganized and untrained forces are the facts of life; impact organizations of great intelligence are inevitable, "carry the heavy end of the log." It is not to be denied that progress has been made in the way of betterment in the life of the average man, and I think the future is radiant with hope for still further improvement in his behalf. That this average man has not sooner come into his own is largely his own fault, especially this is true of the man in the country. He has failed to keep pace with the advancing intelligence of his time. He has neglected his schools as compared with residents of the cities.

The annual average amount for educational purposes per pupil, expended by towns and cities throughout the country exceed $31, while for the country pupil it is $13, the average country man handicaps his boy or girl to the extent of $18 per head annually, as against the city boy or girl. Small wonder that they cannot better compete, as "knowledge is power." So has it ever been. This is a separate try of ours here in Kentucky. I think every farmer crawling on hands and knees over his onion beds in the hot sun, or plodding through his corn rows, or toiling on his shoulders, has a middleman or two perched upon his shoulders. He has a vague idea that something is wrong, but is at a loss to know what it is. For every dollar he gets for his products, there is another dollar absorbed by the middleman, camped between him and the ultimate consumer.

We could do without this middleman almost entirely, if the country man could be able to "see over his shirt collar," and further ahead "than the end of his nose," to do it effectually. He must have schools, and to do it quickly he must have the best schools, and he cannot have the needed schools without cost. The question therefore confronting the country man, sharply and definitely, is whether he and his children prefer to continue being exploited by the city man or whether he will move to have his wife and children good enough to prepare them for meeting on favorable ground the organized forces of the cities. He can have his choice and by this choice he will rise or fall relatively in the scale of well-being.

Now, farmers and fellow citizens of the country, which shall it be for you?

From time immemorial it has been the custom of educators to head all children of both city and country for the college or university, regardless of the fact that scarcely one in a hundred of them would get beyond the high school, and even then qualified numerically beyond the eighth grade.

It is all right of course for those who expect and are able to go on to the flight of educational advantages, and fortunately we have already ample facilities for this purpose, they are abundantly supplied and they are not likely to be diminished.

But what is wanted now is strong educational efforts on the parts of the masses—the average boy and girl—especially in the open country, those who live and expect to live therein.

These need schools of the best quality, and not altogether modeled on city forms; rather schools for the country, that take account of the environment of the children in the country. We need a county system of schools that shall make the entire community a child in the country, whose school should be of varying sizes corresponding to the needs of the different localities; some may need to be of one room, others of two, three, or four rooms, and in each educational division one large school carrying all the eight grades and a four-year high school course. They ought all to be built in a substantial, dignified manner, without extra effort at useless ornamentation. They should be located on plots of ground suitable to furnish ample room for school yards, agricultural agriculture together with manual training for boys and domestic science for girls, at least in the larger schools. Then with a sufficient and efficient teaching force in these up-to-date schools, our children will be speedily put on a footing of intelligence that will insure their ability to cope successfully with organized cities, or any other organization that may come into existence, the best known alliances of utility and convenience. The city must be supplied by the hand, as out of the earth must come all supplies of necessity, convenience or luxury.

It is natural, therefore, that the city man desires to get at least the necessities as cheaply as possible; this is the logic of the situation, and he cannot evade it if he would.

The world's greatest most-needed medical liquorice before us, it is the greatest and best legal medicine we can provide for our children. Will we not be the first to find the need?

In your next issue I may have a word to say on the country high school vs. the city high school.

A Charming Woman

is one who is lovely in face, form, mind and temper. But it is hard for women to claim this without health. A weak sickly woman will never be attractive. Constipation and kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But electric bathtubs always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion and perfect health.

THE JEFFERSONIAN

JEFFERSONTOWN, KY.

THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 1911.

With Col. W. B. Haldeman, editor of the Louisville Times, as president, "aldein by the lesser light," J. C. Alcock, of The Jeffersonian, as secretary and treasurer, the Kentucky Press Association should have a successful year.

DURING the past few weeks Hon. Wm. Addams, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, has made wonderful progress and gained thousands of votes by the extensive advertising of the platform upon which he stands. He has an ad. in this issue of The Jeffersonian that should command the attention of the Democratic readers of this paper. Mr. Addams stands for the great reforms of which the state is so badly in need and being a plain boy man thoroughly educated and well qualified in every way, should make Kentucky an ideal Governor in the event he is elected. His opponent, Senator James B. McCreary, is making a strong fight for the nomination, but on account of the trouble between him and Hon. Ben Johnson, the Democrat in Jefferson county thinks it best to nominate Addams. Mr. Addams will get the majority of votes here and probably in the state.

Another page of this issue of The Jeffersonian will be found a lengthy article about Barksdale Hamlett, candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic primary next Saturday. The Democrats will make no mistake in voting for Mr. Hamlett, as he has done as much for the schools of the state as any other man in the state and is a friend to the rural school children. He is in every way thoroughly qualified for the office his friends wish to give him. He is at present superintendent of the public schools at Hopkinsville and making a race for State Superintendent by making a personal sacrifice of time and money. Read the article in this issue for all information concerning him, and then cast your vote Saturday for the man that will make the state a good superintendent. This is the most important office of this.

On next Saturday the Democratic nominees for state offices will be selected. It is, of course, difficult to predict the winners at this time. For Governor Senator Jas. B. McCrory and Wm. W. Thompson are making a warm race. Mr. McCrory has had politics for so long and is so well known, it was believed at first that he would be nominated, but Addams has made wonderful strides during the past three weeks. It is believed by many in different parts of the state that he will receive the nomination. He has gained most of his ground by judicious advertising in the county papers, and is running on a platform that is sure to win. For Auditor Ed. J. McCormick of Covington seems to have the best of it, but Jas. P. Edwards is a good man, as well as T. G. Stuart, and will be hard to beat. For U. S. Senator Ollie M. James will get the nomination. Thos. H. Paynter having withdrawn from the race. Thos. S. Rhea has no opposition for Treasurer. For Auditor Ruby Laford and Henry M. Boswell are the candidates. Little is said of this race among the people. James Stewart of Adair county, seems to be the favorite for Attorney General against O. H. Pollard. C. F. Cefecelius has no opposition for Secretary of State. For State School Superintendent there are three candidates—Barksdale Hamlett, L. C. Littrell and R. S. Eubank. There is quite a great deal of interest being taken in this race, as the improvement of the rural schools in the state is now the most important subject of the day and the people want a man for this office that will work to bring about the necessary reforms along this line. For Auditor of Natural Resources there are two candidates—Rev. Duncan G. T. Wyatt for Commissioner of Agriculture. J. Morgan Chinn and Rolt. L. Green are the candidates for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. Mr. Chinn will probably get the nomination. Every Democrat should vote for his choice.

Hold Enjoyable Meeting at Beautiful Cerulean Springs.

Col. W. B. Haldeman Elected President and J. C. Alcock Secretary—Business and Pleasure Combined.

The forty-second annual meeting of the Kentucky Press Association came to a close last Friday morning at Cerulean Springs, after one of the most successful meetings ever held.

At 12 o'clock Monday, June 19, editors from all over the state left for Cerulean via the Illinois Central railroad in two special cars furnished by the I. C. Company.

The equipment of these cars was of the newest standard and attracted much admiration from the visitors.

It is the intention of the company to equip all of its through trains with this equipment.

The trip over the I. C. was enjoyable and many expressions of appreciation to the company were heard from all of the editors on board.

The scenery along this route is beautiful.

The train arrived at Cerulean Springs in time for the pen-pushers to enjoy a fine supper prepared by Landlord Turner. Popular John Lawrence and his estimable wife were their helpers to get the visitors and their wives and sweethearts seated and in making the feel at home from the start.

An informal reception was held Monday evening and the first business session held Tuesday morning.

Business Transacted.

The session was formally opened with prayer by H. P. Summers, of Smith's Grove. The meeting was called to order by President A. D. Miller and the address of welcome was delivered by Denny Smith, of Cadiz, commonwealth's attorney; Mr. Smith's address was an eloquent and happy effort, being witty throughout, and his welcome to the visitors was cordial and hearty in the true Western Kentucky spirit.

The report was made by C. E. Woods, of Richmond, in a fine and enthusiastic speech.

Then followed the annual address of the president, which recounted the achievements of the Press Association during the past year and outlined matters that called for future attention.

Edward A. Jonas, associate editor of the Louisville Times, read the annual poem which was in the brightest vein and sparkled with wit.

A resolution was adopted by the association bearing directly on the recent death of former Governor Proctor Knott and a copy of the resolution was ordered to be sent to the widow.

The following program arranged by T. C. Underwood, of the Kentucky New Era, C. M. Meacham, Hopkinsville Kentuckian, and John S. Lawrence, Cadiz Record, was rendered:

vertising," but could not be present on account of buying out the Third District Review at Glasgow and was busy with closing the trade. A letter from him to this effect was read.

Resolutions were adopted expressing thanks for courtesies shown to the members by the Illinois Central and L. & N. Railroad Companies, the Cerulean Springs Hotel Company, the business men of Hopkinsville and Cadiz, the Third Kentucky Regiment Band, W. N. Stice and Mrs. Stice, John S. Lawrence and Mrs. Lawrence, T. O. Turner and Mrs. Turner, Thomas G. Gunn, the retiring officers, the daily press and the Cadiz Record.

The resolutions were offered by a committee composed of T. C. Underwood, C. E. Woods and A. P. Summers.

Electors of Officers.

Col. W. B. Haldeman, of the Louisville Times, was elected president:

COL. W. B. HALDEMAN.

Edward D. Shinnick, of the Shelby Record, vice president; J. C. Alcock, secretary-treasurer; and John S. Lawrence, of the Cadiz Record, chairman of the Executive Committee.

President Haldeman named as other members of the Executive Committee, J. R. Lemon, of the Mayfield Messenger; John B. Gaines, of the Park City News; James B. Stearns, of the Nicholasville News, and W. M. McCreary, of the Louisville Herald.

On motion of Harry A. Sommers representation at annual meetings was increased so as to permit each delegate to bring with him two members of his family or one woman not a member of his family.

League Elects Officers.

The Eighth District Publishers' League met Thursday and elected officers for the ensuing year. Vernon Richardson, of Danville, was elected president; Mike O'Sullivan, of Shelbyville, vice president and A. D. Miller, of Cadiz, secretary and treasurer. The contract for paper stock for the next six months was awarded by the Cordage Paper Company, Cincinnati.

Social Features.

The editors, their wives and lady friends enjoyed the social features to the fullest extent. The business men of Cadiz, Hopkinsville and surrounding towns and the Eighth District Publishers' League gave some prizes for the best encore players, best bowlers, fastest runners, etc., and the contests were participated in by all. There were fast men's and men's men's races, women's footraces, bears, backward races, peg and three-legged races, throwing the ball, etc., all proving great amusement.

The baseball game between the editors of Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky was a feature that was enjoyed very much from the fact that the teams were so equally matched. It resulted 12 to 9 in favor of the Eastern boys.

A Few Notes.

Prof. James Speed, of Louisville, gave his illustrated lecture on school conditions in Kentucky Tuesday evening and made a splendid impression upon the editors. The poor conditions of the school houses as shown by Prof. Speed opened the eyes of the "moulders of public opinion" and made everybody glad by their presence.

Mr. Wood had a few "announcements to make."

A prize had been offered for the most popular couple, Mr. and Mrs. John Lawrence, of Cadiz, would have had a walk-over.

The most popular deer old Cervus with every body remembered, and every body felt that it was going to have been there. The place got to be very crowded.

The entertainment given by the business men of Hopkinsville Thursday was a grand affair. Boxes of cigars for the ladies, cigars for the men and souvenirs for the children were given away.

The band with them to make the day more pleasant. A beautiful floral design was presented the members of the Kentucky Press Association, being the most popular.

The piercing pains of Neuralgia, which often follows a bad cold or La Griffe, are frequently almost unbearable and few medicines afford any relief to the sufferer.

"I am a rural mail carrier and have been a user of the Dr. Miles medicine for years.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills can't be beaten. They are the only thing I have found that will relieve my neuralgia and I have tried most everything, besides medicine from the doctor. I am willing to tell anyone what the Anti-Pain Pills did for me."

BARKSDALE HAMLETT

EDUCATOR CANDIDATE FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

Democratic Party Will Demand as Its Candidate a Man Who Is a Practical and Experienced Educator.

The first law of a democracy is the equalization of opportunity, which means the equitable distribution of intelligence through an adequate provision of educational equipment.

There can appear no virtue in the cry of a "Square Deal" so long as there exists a monopoly of intelligence, in a state where society is composed of individuals equally endowed by nature, yet to the great masses of whom all the light of human achievement and the social heritage of truth are denied.

Through a permanently organized campaign for education, the educated and ideal must be converted into practical realities. This will the latent energies of society be set free and opportunity will indeed knock at the door of every home in Kentucky.

His Platform.

I stand specifically for: A school free and accessible to every child in every rural district in Kentucky.

BARKSDALE HAMLETT.

The improvement, sanitation and equipment of our rural schools, in accordance with the best modern standards.

Minimum seven months terms in every district.

A rational and effective compulsory attendance.

Practical course of study; agricultural and the domestic and mechanical arts and sciences.

Good roads and consolidation where practical.

Teachers of scholarship, character and personality.

County high schools, accessibly located in every county.

Improved facilities for the county superintendent's office.

Liberal enrollment and maintenance of our normal schools and state university as component parts of our public school system.

Readjustment of our system of finance to effect larger results on a more economic basis.

Personal leadership in the field on the part of the state superintendent.

Success Comes Only at End of Effort.

The subject of this sketch is a man of strong individuality, keen mentality and broad humanitarian spirit, whose interest in his fellow men is sincere, while his work is always actuated by a desire to advance the cause of education. * * * He worked in the tobacco patch for the means with which to educate himself, and succeeded to the extent that he was graduated from the Hampden-Sidney College of Virginia, with the Orator's medal of his class, at the age of nineteen. * * * (From E. Polk Johnson's History of Kentucky, in publication.)

Endorsed by Educators and Press.

An ex-president of the Kentucky Educational Association, one of its five original incorporators, and up to the present time a member of its board of directors. An ex-president of the Fourth Congressional District association; an ex-state board examiner. Began his career as teacher in Lyndhurst Academy, Hardin County, taught in the rural district and normal schools, Larue county; principal of the graded schools of Corydon, and principal of the Henderson high school, from which he came to the superintendency of the Hopkinsville public schools.

The Man For the Place.

Editor T. C. Underwood, president of the Kentucky Press Association, in the Hopkinsville News Era:

"The Democratic party could look long and hard without finding a worthier or more competent candidate for the important office of state superintendent of schools. Mr. Hamlett is a man who has always made good, and his career has been a lesson of energy, perseverance and humor. The state has no more enthusiastic and effective an advocate of education, nor the Democratic party a more loyal supporter."

A Builder of Schools.

In another issue he has this to say:

"When Prof. Hamlett came to Hopkinsville, from Henderson, six years ago, as superintendent of the public schools, there were but two buildings. With the completion this year of the high school buildings, there will be six, at a cost of $200,000, and the faculty of twenty-three teachers has been increased to forty-nine. * * * He is an orator and an after-dinner speaker. * * * He is a member of the Elks, W. O. W. and other fraternal organizations. Prof. Hamlett is also superintendent of the First Baptist church Sunday-school, one of the largest in the state."

A Leader in Progressive Movement.

Prof. Hamlett, though only thirty-two years of age, has had thirteen years of successful experience as a teacher, rising by rapid promotions from teacher of a small county school at $30 a month to the splendid position he now holds as the head of the Hopkinsville school system, with more than 2,500 pupils and 40 teachers under his superintendence. Under his direction the schools have been improved from year to year, until they are more than ever the pride of one of the most progressive cities of the state.

A young man who seems to have all the elements of success in his make-up is a man in every way capable of making an officer of whom the whole state would justly be proud.

A leader in every progressive movement, Barksdale Hamlett will help to redeem Kentucky in 1911, and will be the next superintendent of Public instruction.—(Mayor Chas. M. Meacham in the Hopkinsville Courier.)

Master of School Problems.

From study and experience, he is master of the school problems of Kentucky and is particularly interested in the improvement of the common schools. The news knows no Democrat so thoroughly equipped from teacher of a small county school to the head of the Hopkinsville school system, with more than 2,500 pupils and 40 teachers under his superintendence, to advance the school interests proper of Kentucky, as Prof. Hamlett, and we would like to see him given the nomination without opposition.—(Elizabethown News.)

Friend to the Rural Schools.

Prof. Hamlett is a strong, intelligent friend to the cause of education and believes in a square deal from the smallest district to the most intelligent city in the country.

Friend to the common schools, the state, a clean, sound and energetic teacher who has all the elements of success in his make-up and is a man in every way capable of making an officer of whom the whole state would justly proud.

It is hoped that Mr. Hamlett will have no opposition before the Democratic primary, for he is so thoroughly Democratic and clean in his views, so well equipped from all angles, that antagonism would be almost unjustifiable.

Mr. Hamlett has given a good account of himself, and his work at Hopkinsville is a monument to his ability and worth as an organizer.

He has made more than

and there can make good at the head of Kentucky's school affairs. If you want to know what Barksdale Hamlett stands for, just follow carefully the creed of the man as promulgated by himself.—(Henderson Journal.)

Solid Backing of Home People.

Hamlett stands at the very top among the educators of our state. His friends predict with all candor that he will go into the fight with the solid backing not only of his home county, but the entire second congressional district. — (Daily Leader, Fulton.)

An Ideal Superintendent.

Barksdale Hamlett, of Hopkinsville, is the most advanced, intelligent and capable man in the state for superintendent of public instruction.

He knows the needs of the state in all educational matters and would make an ideal state superintendent of public instruction.—(H. A. Summers in The Elizabethown Journal.)

The Man of the Hour.

As he is seen by the Ballard County Yeoman:

"The most unusual reader can see in him the man of the hour, the man in whom all people of all parties can graciously unite and work for. His whole life, his every energy, his wonderful brain power are trapped in this, the greatest task to be done in Kentucky. Though yet young, he is undoubtedly the best equipped man for this office the state has ever produced."

Determination and Success in His Face.

A young man who seems to have an ambition to accomplish something worth while in the educational field, and judging from that determined expression in his frank open countenance, he is going to succeed in the undertaking. — (Daily Bulletin, Mayville.)

A Worthy and Competent Leader.

His work at Hopkinsville is a monument to his ability as a school worker and organizer. He is abundantly qualified for the high office which he seeks, and his broad平原 embraces the very best in educational thought. He is a worthy man in every respect, having worked his self up from a poor boy. Already he has pledged to him almost the solid vote of the teachers of the state, and all interested in the improvement and advancement of Kentucky's educational facilities, see in him a worthy and competent leader for the accomplishment of those things. — (Hartford Herald.)

Successful in Great Undertakings.

He is eminently qualified for the position which he seeks, his record as an educator has been one of uninterrupted success. It is due to him that the handsomest Christian county and Hopkinsville high school is now a permanent reality, having been erected under the Sullivan law, at a cost of $100,000. — (The News-Democrat, Paducah.)

We believe as state superintendent of public instruction, he would be the right man in the right place.— (Caloway County Gazette.)

Mr. Hamlett believes in the equalization of opportunities, and his greatest wish in his work is to make opportunity knock at the home of every school child in Kentucky. We like Mr. Hamlett, and unless he is popular, he is bound to be popular. In fact, he is not a politician, he is a school man who is well equipped for the office.— (The Breckinridge News, Cloverport.)

Making a Fine Race.

He is a man of infinite ability and capacity and stands upon a platform that neither trims nor tergiverses; that begs no question nor evades a single issue. Mr. Hamlett, a man of individuality and ability, an educator and orator, is conceded to be the logical man for the place and is eminently qualified for the office of state superintendent.

Eminently qualified for the position sought, we believe him to be "the man" for superintendent of our state schools.

Prof. Hamlett is a strong friend to the cause of advanced education and believes in a square deal from the smallest district to the most progressive city in the country.

Friend to the common schools, the state, a clean, sound and energetic teacher who has all the elements of success in his make-up and is a man in every way capable of making an officer of whom the whole state would justly proud.

It is hoped that Mr. Hamlett will have no opposition before the Democratic primary, for he is so thoroughly Democratic and clean in his views, so well equipped from all angles, that antagonism would be almost unjustifiable.

Mr. Hamlett has given a good account of himself, and his work at Hopkinsville is a monument to his ability and worth as an organizer.

He has made more than

and there can make good at the head of Kentucky's school affairs.

If you want to know what Barksdale Hamlett stands for, just follow carefully the creed of the man as promulgated by himself.—(Henderson Journal.)

In the Lead.

Barksdale Hamlett, of Hopkinsville, continues in the lead for the Democratic nomination for Superintendent of Schools. His superior qualifications for the office give him a decided advantage over both his opponents, who are not active schoolmen. The people of the State are awakening to the fact that to elect a lawyer to the agricultural department of the farm bureau the superintendence of schools would be sheer folly, and they are lining up in this section at least for Mr. Hamlett mainly because he is an eminent, active educator and has made a success in his chosen line of work.—The Somersett Journal.
